

Clearly the Sinclair group is not acting in the public interest, but their own personal interest. The fact that they are forcing their affiliates to air the program only proves their bias.